

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MY SISTER'S HOUSE ANNOUNCES FULL 2022 BOARD OF DIRECTORS WITH ADDITION OF LATASHA GANDY, BANK OF AMERICA

Image © Dolphin Multimedia Photography

Pictured, 2022 MSH Board of Directors and 2022 benefit gala presenting sponsor (left to right): LaTasha Gandy (Bank of America); John Wood (President, Origin Point Brands, presenting sponsor of 2022 MSH benefit gala); Hon. Kristi Harrington, Ret. (Kristi Harrington Dispute Resolution); Board Chair Elliott Quinn, IV, ESQ. (Steinberg Law Firm); Kimberly Collins (Blackbaud); Sean Wilson, ESQ. (Law Office of Sean M. Wilson); Board Chair-Elect Natalie Caula Hauff (Charleston County Public Library); Immediate Past Board Chair Chad Rhoad (History Press); MSH CEO Tosha Connors; Donald Smith (Hendrick Automotive); Elizabeth Kane, PhD (Cupboard); Lana Kleiman, ESQ. (Charleston Legal Access); Larry Collett (Larry and Rebecca Collett Foundation); Renee Rivlin, ESQ. (Community leader); and Rock Amick (Big Rock Wealth Management). NOT PICTURED: Yakisha Bookard (Atlas Technologies); Kim Driffin (Pinnacle Finance)

CHARLESTON, SC, May 6, 2022 -- My Sisters House, the Lowcountry leader in domestic violence survival, today announced a full 2022 Board of Directors with the addition of LaTasha Gandy. Ms. Gandy, in her position as Vice President, Senior Relationship Manager of Commercial Banking with Bank of America, serves the Lowcountry as a corporate and community engagement leader.

Ms. Gandy, a committed advocate for underserved residents in our region, has served in an advisory capacity for such organizations as Harvest Hope Food Bank, the Charleston Trident Urban League, the Ellevote Network – Charleston Chapter, and the Charleston Regional Development Alliance Talent Recruitment Advisory Council. Her induction to the My Sister's House 2022 Board of Directors took place last month under the Chairmanship of Elliott Quinn, ESQ, and agency leadership of Tosha Connors, MSH Chief Executive Officer. Of Ms. Gandy's appointment to the MSH Board, CEO Connors said, "LaTasha Gandy is a compassionate visionary with a unique understanding of the challenges faced by the victims we serve and the systemic barriers that obstruct their paths to healing and freedom from abuse. She joins our board at a pivotal moment, bringing fresh energy and perspective to a strong team of Lowcountry leaders. We're proud to welcome her to a powerful Board, making a lasting impact on the organization for years to come.”

Ms. Gandy, a leader with Bank of America for more than 12 years, is a longtime South Carolina resident, holding a Bachelor of Science from the University of South Carolina – Columbia. Recognized often for her leadership with Bank of America, awards include the Pinnacle Award for Culture (2020) and the Business Integration Award (2020 and 2017). As a Charleston Chamber of Commerce member, she completed the highly sought-after Leadership Charleston program in 2019 where she further cemented her dedication to social justice pursuits on behalf of children’s services, veteran support, economic empowerment, education, health, and civil rights.

ABOUT MY SISTER’S HOUSE

MSH is proud to continue its work as the Lowcountry leader in domestic violence victim service, recovery, and advocacy. Programs of note include individual and group clinical therapy, sheltered and community-based client case management, court advocacy, bilingual Spanish-language services (case management, clinical therapy, and court advocacy), housing, career, and transportation support, community outreach and education, and emergency services partner training. For additional information on MSH programs and services, visit www.MySistersHouse.org. To access safety planning, services, and resources, please call the 24/7 MSH intake and crisis hotline: (800) 273-HOPE or (843) 744-3242.

Media Contact:

Maryn Goolsby Favors, MSH Director of Communications
maryn@mysistershouse.com

###